CITIZEN'S COMMENTS: It was stated that V Avenue is still flooding over the road, there is already a service call in on this stated Supervisor Gatlin. Joanna Johnson from RCKC was in attendance and made notes to follow up on this.

Still waiting on Asbestos report from the state for the demolition of the Masonic Building. This is a dangerous building and is now on the forfeiture list. The gentleman hired to do the asbestos test was let go from his position and never filed our request, therefore the delay which we just heard about. Supervisor Gatlin is getting in touch with a new company.

The Road Commission of Kalamazoo County put on a presentation of Wakeshma Township Roads that a few citizens missed and had questions on what was presented.

Tom Swafford from Richland spoke up to say that he is running for Kalamazoo County Sheriff and wanted to stop by to introduce himself.
